

spring 2010

democratizingknowledge PROJECT

developing literacies building communities seeding change

march 3

“Democratizing Graduate Education”

Graduate students’ reflections on the benefits and obstacles of becoming a radical intellectual and/or scholar-activist within academia.

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 3 , 12:15-1:30 P.M., 304 TOLLEY

Conversation Leaders: Sarah Miraglia, Sociology
Hayley Cavino, Cultural Foundations of Education
Vivek Srinivasan, Social Sciences

Moderator: Griselda Rodriguez, Sociology

march 24

“Saying YES to Education”

A conversation on an initiative to help more children in Syracuse succeed academically, graduate from high school, and pursue higher education.

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 24 , 12:15-1:30 P.M., 304 TOLLEY

Conversation Leaders: Nancy Cantor, Chancellor of Syracuse University
Douglas Biklen, Dean of the School of Education

Moderator: Margaret Himley, Writing and Rhetoric/LGBT Studies

april 21

“Talking Back: University-Community Partnerships”

A conversation on the ways community organizations in the city’s less empowered neighborhoods interact with the University’s presence in the area and on the prospects for truly collaborative campus-community partnerships.

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 21 , 12:15-1:30 P.M., 304 TOLLEY

Conversation Leaders: Sharon Jack-Williams, Exec. Director, Paul Laurence Dunbar Community Center
Rita Paniagua, Exec. Director, Spanish Action League
Samuel H. Sage, President/Senior Scientist, Atlantic States Legal Foundation

Moderator: Silvio Torres-Saillant, English/Latino/Latin American Studies