

Lecture by Professor Steven Salaita

On Academic Freedom, Academic Labor, and the Question of Palestine

Wednesday October 29, 2014
Crouse Hinds 010
5:30 pm

Co-sponsored by the Cold Case Justice Initiative, the Democratizing Knowledge Project, the Labor Studies Working Group, Native American Studies, and the Departments of African American Studies, Anthropology, Cultural Foundations of Education, English, Geography, History, Political Science, Sociology, and Women's and Gender Studies.

Lecture is free and open to the public. ASL interpretation will be provided. Crouse Hinds Hall is located at 900 S. Crouse Ave. Paid parking is available in the Waverly Lot (located on the Northeast corner of Waverly and Crouse) and in the University Ave Lot (located on University Ave between Adams and Harrison). For more information contact salaitaatsu@gmail.com.

